

World Federation Newswire, 22 March 2006
In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

News and Events

The WF Triennial Conference 2006

The WF Triennial Conference for the term 2003-2006 is to be held from the 13th (19th Shaaban) to the 16th (22nd Shaaban) of September 2006 in Dubai, UAE. All members are requested to peruse the Voting Rights list and present any updates by April 30th 2006. To view the Voting Rights and Representation document, please visit the WF website. The diary of events is as follows:

15th June 2006

- Formal notice of conference with the proposed agenda to be issued by the Secretary
- The Electoral Commissioner to issue request for nominations for the Office of the President

15th July 2006

- Last day for notification of any proposed amendments to the constitution
- By this date, members to have sent in nominations for the Office of the President

22 July 2006

- The Electoral Commissioner to declare nominations and request for election of the President

30 July 2006

- Last day for members to add items to agenda

14th August 2006

- Last day for members to submit votes for the post of President

For more information, please email secretariat@world-federation.org

IEB Tableegh Meeting Held in Dar-es-Salaam

The WF Islamic Education Board, IEB, has taken the initiative to create stronger partnerships with East African tableegh organizations. A meeting held in Dar-es-Salaam on February 17th 2006, brought together tableegh organization representatives to address the need for a strategic vision for tableegh, training for the mubaligheen, identification of core competencies for effective tableegh, evaluation process, and the establishment of working partnerships between tableegh organizations. The IEB and the Central Bilal Board, CBB, of Africa Federation will work together to form a committee that will tackle the above needs/tasks. For more information, please email ieb@world-federation.org.

Officials of the ICIS Center for Short Courses Visit the IEB Qum Office

A key activity of the WF Islamic Education Board Qum Office is to establish strong relations with various organizations in Qum to increase coordination and attain common goals. To further this aim, the IEB Qum Office welcomed the Director of the Center for Short Courses of the International Center for Islamic Studies, ICIS, Dr. Mohammad Ali Haji Dehabadi and the Deputy for Implementation, Sheikh Qasim Khazaie at Dar al-Zahra, the center at which the Qum office is based. The guests were offered a tour of the facility and briefings of the IEB Qum office by the IEB Qum office manager, Sheikh Mohammed Ali Ismail. For more information on the IEB Qum office, or on the short courses, please visit www.ieb.world-federation.org or email ieb-qum@world-federation.org

History of the WF Updated

The WF Communications Team has updated the 'About Us' section, which contains information on how the WF was formed and has progressed. A more detailed version is also available as a link at the end of the summary. Please visit the WF website to access the update.

Your Calendar

Wafat of the Holy Prophet (pbuh), 28 Safar 1427 – March 2006

Prophet Mohammed (pbuh) was an individual who remained 'alive' even after his death. With his exemplary lifestyle and merciful manner, the beloved Prophet lit a fierce burning love in his followers for centuries and beyond. But the Prophet called for more than an emotional response, he commanded an intellectual following, of his message of the truth. With kindness and mercy, and a wonderful sense of humor, the Prophet won the hearts of millions and paved the path for righteousness and truth.

To view the full newswire or to register, visit www.world-federation.org. To share comments or views, please email secretariat@world-federation.org