The World Federation Lends a Hand to Augment Marriages - Bihar, India

The World Federation provided 34 Sadaats and non-Sadaats from disadvantaged families in Bihar with a cash gift of INR 5000 to INR 10,000 to help supplement their wedding costs. For more information please email secretariat@world-federation.org.

Sindh and Balochistan Flood Report - Pakistan

The persistent rains and the resulting floods that swept through the provinces of Balochistan and Sindh and the city of Karachi have caused havoc, forcing thousands of destitute individuals to abandon their homes. NGOs along with our community are once again at the forefront of the relief effort. The Hussaini Foundation has also come to the aid of the displaced people and along with other organizations, it has created a network of working groups involved in relief efforts. The victims of the floods received packs of rations which included wheat flour, rice, ghee and ice water and essential medicines from local sources. For more information or to make a donation please contact secretariat@world-federation.org.

CoEJ Sweden Summer Camp Enjoys Another Successful Year – Stockholm, Sweden

The CoEJ Sweden Summer Camp for Boys has now come to a close. The camp lasted 12 days and as usual, proved to be an excellent venue for the personal development of both campers and mentors. For more information, email education@coej.org.
