Dar-ul-Muslimeen Orphanage Receives Sewing Machines and Computers – Morogoro, Tanzania

The Dar-ul-Muslimeen Orphanage now has two sewing machines and five second-hand computers. The aim is to provide training while the children attend schooling so that if children are not selected for secondary schooling then they can fall back on vocational training. Computer training is also being offered on a limited basis; the cost of the course is T.Shs. 80,000/= per person. Dar-ul-Muslimeen continues to appeal to all to contribute toward these noble endeavours, and wishes to thank the donors who have already contributed towards the cause.
