Qum Office Organises Visit to Ayatullah Jawadi Amuli

One of the key objectives of The World Federation this term is to strengthen the community's ties with our esteemed Maraje. The World Federation's office in Qum is ideally suited to fulfill this objective. Situated in the heart of the holy city of Qum, the office keeps regular contact with all major organisations and offices of our Maraje, and organises periodical visits to them to seek advice, guidance and to further cooperation. Recently, the office organised for a group of students to have an audience with Ayatullah Jawadi Amuli.

Jaffery Academy Interview Day – Mombasa, Kenya

The Careers Department of the Jaffery Academy held its first ever Interview Day for the Form 6 students on May 3, 2008. The students participated in mock interviews where they were evaluated on communication skills, interview techniques, and professional appearance by a panel of volunteer interviewers from the business world. Read more on the WF website.

Young Muslims' Advisory Group – England

The National Youth Agency has recently been contracted by the Government to develop a Young Muslims' Advisory Group (YMAG) to enable a direct conversation between young Muslims and government policy makers. The agency intends to recruit 20 'inspiring and ambitious' young Muslims, aged 16 to 21. Deadline for application is July 21, 2008. To access the application or view the brochure, visit the WF website. For further information, visit www.nya.org.uk/ymag

Senior Citizens Forum Newsletter – Karachi, Pakistan

The Senior Citizens Form in Karachi Pakistan has released its July newsletter. The newsletter includes information about the recent programmes and activities for the seniors. View the newsletter on the WF website. For more information, email scfkhi@gmail.com

Embracing the Months of Spiritual Upliftment

The holy month of Rajab al-Murajjab is a month of self-purification and self-development, serving as a preparatory month for the holy month of Ramadhan. Starting 'now' allows us to reap the spiritual benefits of the holy month ahead. Read more on the WF website.
