

Shaykh Khalil Jaffer

Shaykh Khalil Jaffer was born in Mombasa, Kenya, and currently resides in Toronto. He holds a degree in computer science and has worked in software development. After completing his [post-secondary] studies, he trained as a lecturer in college, and gave evening lectures. His powerful and adept public speaking further developed during this period. After seven years in Nairobi, he relocated to Dubai for a further five years, before finally moving to Toronto. Having been part of a number of our community hotspots gives him a unique insight into the development of our society today.
